TEACH IN JAPAN 盛岡・田野畑

ALTs assist with English classes taught by Japanese teachers of English within Morioka City or Tanohata Village. They are involved in preparing English teaching materials and English-centered extracurricular activities, as well as participating in school clubs, community activities, and local festivals.

ALTs serve as not only teachers, but also as cultural ambassadors for their communities. Past ALTs have entered a variety of professions, including education, law, translation, and international relations. Many go on to earn advance degrees.

“Morioka is filled with a warmhearted spirit... the everyday kindness of people is very apt to spoil you.”
