

"Every day that I was on Japan Study was a new adventure, a new opportunity, and a new discovery. Tokyo became my classroom and my teacher."

JESSICA BARRETT SATTELL,
JAPAN STUDY PARTICIPANT

STUDY AT A PREMIER UNIVERSITY

Take classes with Japanese and international students from over 50 countries at the School of International Liberal Studies (SILS) at Waseda University in Tokyo. Challenge yourself with Japanese language classes and various English-taught elective courses.

Immerse yourself in campus life by participating in one of over 800 Waseda student clubs with themes such as martial arts, dance, photography, sports, and cultural exchange. Form lasting friendships that will shape both your time in Japan and your life.

EXPERIENCE JAPANESE SOCIETY

Become part of a community of co-learners on the Japan Study Program and experience Japanese culture through a variety of program events, trips, and retreats. Broaden your view of Japan through a one-month Cultural Internship experience and engage in cultural exchange with people across Japan. Choose a Cultural Internship site that reflects your interests, such as living in a Zen temple or assisting with educational exchange in rural towns.
